

12

TRAITS OF BRAVE TEAM MEMBERS.

THEY'RE SELF STARTERS

A BRAVE team member doesn't need to be told. They take initiative and act. They get on with it and make stuff happen.

THEY LIFT OTHERS UP.

A BRAVE team member will always spot the opportunity to lift someone else up, and they don't need to be rewarded for it.

THEY'RE DRAMA FREE.

A BRAVE team member avoids workplace drama and doesn't allow it to affect them. They focus on the solution instead.

THEY DON'T COMPLAIN.

A BRAVE team member
doesn't complain.
They discuss constructively and work on making things better for everyone.

THEY DON'T BULLSHIT.

A BRAVE team member admits
what they don't know
and then set about learning it fast.

THEY LISTEN WELL.

A BRAVE team member
knows how to listen.

They use empathy and emotional intelligence to help them.

THEY DON'T FEAR DECISIONS.

A BRAVE team member doesn't fear making a decision. They make well formed, well informed decisions instead.

THEY OWN THEIR VOICE.

A BRAVE team member
doesn't stay quiet.
They know it's always okay to speak up and own what they say.

THEY'RE DATA SAVVY.

A BRAVE team member uses data to help them decide but also listen to their intuition and take best quality advice when they need to.

THEY GET THE JOB DONE.

A BRAVE team member doesn't waste time, they focus on doing good work and they always finish what they started.

THEY DISAGREE WELL.

A BRAVE team member doesn't argue or fall out. They disagree well and debate with purpose. They know disagreement doesn't mean dislike.

THEY THINK IT THROUGH.

A BRAVE team member doesn't rush. They think consciously and deliberately about what they're doing to get the best outcome.

ENJOY THIS?

